The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist in this section who has been able to cure in all his cases, and that is Cattara. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Cattara being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Farm Notes.

Issued by the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

EARLIEST MATURING POTATOES

Of the 40 varieties of potatoes that are being raised this year at the University Farm, the varieties that have matured the earliest, respectively, are Uncle Gideon's Quick Lunch, Early Six Weeks, and Early Ohio. Each of these promises good yields, but as they have not been entirely harvested the final figures have not been prepared.

DEMONSTRATORS REPORT

What the farm demonstrators of Nebraska have accomplished during the last year and what they are attempting to bring about in agricultural advancement during the present season are embodied in the First Annual Report of County Cooperative Farm Demonstration Work just off the press. It may be obtained free upon application for Extension Bulletin No.
27 of the bulletin department, University Farm, Lincoln.

SOME LATE GARDEN CROPS

The gardener who wishes to make the best use of his vegetable plot may still raise several crops this season if he is in a position to water his tract.
Turnips, beans, beets, and endive seedlings may be planted now. The Nebraska College of Agriculture says lettuce and radishes will thrive well about September 1 or earlier if the weather becomes cooler. Cucumbers for pickles may mature if the fall is late enough.

PROVE PROFIT IN TREATING QATS

The treatment of seed oats for smut has increased the yield on one of the farms in Gage county 17.26 bushels this season. The yields of all the plots that have been treated thru the advice of O. H. Liebers, the farm demonstrator for Gage county, have not been determined, but even greater differences are expected to be found between the treated and untreated seed. Such treatment has long been advocated by the Nebraska College of Agriculture, and data concerning it may be obtained in the bulletin on "Smuts of Nebraska Cereals."

GRIND WHEAT FOR PIGS

A great saving can be effected by grinding the wheat for fattening pigs according to some very recent experiments of the animal husbandry department at the University Farm.
Other facts determined by the experiment are:
Pigs can be fattened on shorter feed with ground wheat than with whole wheat.
Owing to the faster gains made and the better finish obtained, a small amount of tankage can generally be profitably fed with ground wheat.In case conditions are such that grinding wheat is not practicable, a small amount of tankage fed with whole wheat will materially increase the rate of gain and, on the basis of present prices used in the experiment, will materially increase the profit obtained.

WHEN TO CUT CORN SILAGE.

Under normal conditions the best time to cut corn for silage is when the kernels are well denting and become glazed and about one-fourth of the hunks and lower leaves are drying up, say University farm professors. More mature corn has a greater nutritive value and will make better silage than too green corn, providing it contains enough moisture to insure good fermentation. Corn cut too green makes dark colored, sour silage which is apt to cause animals to scour. In case of extreme drought, it may be necessary to cut the corn much earlier than usual.
The best time for cutting under unfavorable conditions is when the corn cobs are grown.

PLOWING TO SAVE MOISTURE

All of the considerable number of tests that have been made during the past several years show an advantage of plowing over disking to store water.
If the weather continues dry during a test of this kind or if the disking kills the weeds as thoroughly as plowing, little difference will be found. If the disking, however, does not kill all the weeds the difference will be greater, depending upon the amount of water used by the weeds. Where heavy rains come during the test, the advantage of plowing over disking will be greater. The plowing puts the soil in better shape than does the disk to catch the heavy rains.—Research Bulletin 5, Nebraska Experiment Station.

GUY G. SIDES

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for treasurer of Dakota county at the primary election to be held August 18, 1914. I was born in Dakota precinct, where I have spent practically all my life. If nominated and elected I will serve the people of the county conscientiously and fearlessly.
GUY G. SIDES.marriage a secret until now. Mrs.
Gillespie is a graduate of the Sioux City high school. Mr. Gillespie works at the Hanford Produce Co. The secret was kept from their friends until they chose to make it public today.Sioux City Journal, 3: It cost James Jenkins, a farmer living near Homer, Neb., $10 last night to save a chance on 25 cents. When Jenkins crossed the combination bridge in his automobile, he opened the throttle of his car when the bridge tender stepped out to collect the 25 cent toll, and the tender had to jump to keep from being run over. Jenkins sped on into the city. Neil Anderson, motorcycle policeman, says Jenkins brushed by the bridge tender without paying.
He also noticed that Jenkins had no lights on his motor car. Anderson chased Jenkins and arrested him.
The Nebraska put up a cash bond for $10 for violating the city ordinance relative to lights on automobiles. Then Anderson escorted him to the bridge, where he was forced to pay the tender 25 cents.Sioux City Journal, 30th: Two dollars was offered for the name of each disturber at the Free Methodist tent meeting in South Sioux City last night. Loud talking during the services made it impossible for those within the tent to pay attention to the sermon. After a particularly loud outburst from the shadows, a man jumped from his seat and rushing to the outside of the tent, cried: "I'll give anybody $1 for every name he gives me of the people who are disturbing this meeting." "I'll give $2" shouted the evangelist. "Who'll make it $3," cried a voice from the shadows.
Efforts to obtain the names of the talkers and smokers failed. All of the boys were then ordered to leave the grounds. As the jurisdiction of the church people covered only ground within a radius of 100 feet of the tent the youngsters retired to this distance and raised to a terrific noise. The South Sioux City high school yell vied with the "amens" from the tent, and regtime music from the road arose in violent discord with the hymns

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

The undersigned hereby announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for the office of county clerk of Dakota county, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election August 18, 1914.
Very respectfully,
GEORGE WILKINS.from the meeting place. South Sioux City authorities were scored by the evangelist and the church deacons.
Rev. Mrs. Gardner declared that she had read about much hell and thoroughly believed in such a place, but that if it was a worse place than South Sioux City it would surpass all advance notices. She further asserted that in all of her experience in the evangelistic work she had never been in a place where the police had refused protection to her meetings when such protection was asked for. Rev.
Mrs. Gardner expressed regret that the meetings had to be brought to a close at this time, as she is positive that both South Sioux City and Sioux City proper are beginning to wake up to the importance of the series.
Last night's service, finished the meetings, which have been in progress for the last two weeks.Sioux City Journal, 2: Mrs. W. J.
Langens entertained yesterday at a beach party at Crystal lake. Miss Anna Winty, of Hampton, Ia., was among the twelve guests.... Two automobile accidents were reported to the police late yesterday afternoon.
John Critz, of Homer, Neb., ran into G. A. Burkhardt at Tenth and Douglass streets, and A. M. Gruber ran into a man in Morningglade. No one was hurt.
.... Chief of Police A. L. Mathwig, of South Sioux City, expects to receive his commission as chief of the fire department at the next meeting of the town council. Single handed, Chief Mathwig, extinguished a fire in the Edwards & Bradford coal bins in South Sioux City yesterday morning after he had obtained 200 feet of hose from the Sioux City fire department.
Spontaneous combustion started the blaze.... Crystal lake has been a popular place for the young people, and many informal parties were held there last week. One of the largest camping parties is that of the Lucky Thirteen club, whose members have met together for the past five years.
Mrs. A. C. Harrington is chaperoning the party of girls, who include Misses Marian Simme, Carrie Frey, Louise Brown, Elmira Rice, Bess Harrington, Florence Williams, Helen Higman, Elta
James of St. Paul, Genevieve Balcom, Helen Laub, Marie Gray, Marian Sues, and Marion Heikes. Miss Gertrude Dalley of St. Paul, Miss Marge-rye Martin of Des Moines, Miss Mildred Ward of Chicago and Miss Edith Wagner of Waterloo are guests at the cottage. A party of young men are also camping at the lake. They include Fred Pierce, Frank Johnson, Eugene Rice, Leonard Balcom, Edward Gregg, Carl Shaw, Arthur Brown, Vern Heikes and Edmund Conway. Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Skeels, Mrs. Gladys Skeels and Joy Brown were guests of the Lucky Thirteen cottage last week.
